Bailey's Grove Offers Reward In Vandalism Case

The Bailey's Grove Property Owners Association is offering a $1000 reward through Silent Observer for information leading to the suspects that damaged 26 cars in the early morning hours of October 4, 2009. The perpetrators slashed tires and broke out windows as well as scratched swastikas and other obscenities on some of the cars.

Damage estimates are still pending.

Brian Toronyi, President of the Bailey's Grove Property Owners Association said "The residents of Bailey's Grove will not tolerate such heinous and gross criminal activity. This was a senseless act of vandalism that caused thousands of dollars in damage."

Anyone with information on this case is asked to call Kentwood Police at 656-6600 or Silent Observer at 774-2345. Silent Observer can also be contacted confidentially at www.silentobserver.org.

Brian Toronyi is willing to speak to the media about this reward.
